

The Lutheran High School Project

“...that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, to reach all the riches of full assurance of understanding and the knowledge of God's mystery, which is Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.” – Colossians 2:2-3

The Lutheran High School Project of Dodge County seeks to establish a High School in which our local youth will be grounded in God's Word and nourished by the tradition, beauty, and rigor of a classical education.

CALL FOR CONVERSATION

We seek interested parties to discuss this endeavor with us. If you have school age children, an interest in Lutheran education, a desire to assist us, or questions of any sort, please reach out to us. We invite discussion from traditional school families, homeschool partners, existing educators, and committed Christians of all ages.

Grounded in God's Word: Our goal is to create a learning environment in which God's Word reigns supreme. We recognize that the Word of God is the ultimate source of knowledge and the highest authority in all matters of faith and life. God's command to teach the Word of God to children is a parent's highest calling and we seek to establish a school that will assist parents in this most important task.

Lasting Content: Our desire is to convey truth, goodness and beauty to young people through real academic content, original texts, and fine art. We rejoice in the bright history of western civilization and will embrace that wealth that has been handed down to us through careful study of the Great Books, science, art, music, and much more.

Christian Community: We intend to instill wisdom and knowledge in the hearts of our students that they might grow in virtue, piety, and Christian fellowship. As students hear the Word of God, the Holy Spirit enlightens their minds, grants them repentance and faith, and leads them to grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
